Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:55 a. m. and sets at 6:12 p. m. High water at 3:40 a. m. and 4:14 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section, rain and somewhat warmer tonight, Tuesday fair and colder; increasing southerly, shifting to westerly winds.

Fined Five Dollars Each.

Ellis Day, Oliver Dudley, Robert Williams, Richard Spottswood, Thomas Elzey, Jack Lee and Luther Robinson, all colored, were placed in the dock in the Police Court this morning charged with disorderly conduct and gambling. They had been arrested by Officers Smith, Ferguson, Roberts, Young, Knight, Arrington, Bettis, Beach, Nicholson and Lyles. The row occurred about nine o'clock last night in a room over a saloon conducted by Ernest Crump in the northern section of the city. When Officers Ferguson and the scene the inmates number, extinguishing the lights.

They were fined $5 each. The same morning, resentence and others were in the dock. He was subsequently arraigned on charge of permitting gambling on his premises, but he was dismissed, as it was shown that he was home at the time and that the gamblers had been admitted to the room by a colored man named Harris, who sleeps in the place since it was burglarized recently.

Collision in the Bay.

The steamer Norfolk, which arrived up this morning, collided with a schooner in the bay early last night shortly after leaving Fortress Monroe. The prow of the Norfolk struck the vessel on the starboard bow, carrying away her bowsprit and cutting her down almost to the water line. A stateroom of the Norfolk in which a passenger was sleeping was damaged, but no one on either boat was injured. There was some excitement on the steamer as a result of the collision, but nothing approaching a panic. The Norfolk stood by the schooner over an hour and a half, rendering all necessary assistance, and arrived at her wharf in this city this morning about an hour and a half late. The officers of the Norfolk said the schooner failed to show lights, but those in charge of her claim that they had the proper lights exposed.

Made Another Visit.

Jack Maloney, who is about fifty years of age, and is said to have once been a well known song and dance man, was arrested by Policeman Roberts and locked up on a charge of disorderly conduct yesterday. Maloney went to the Alexandria Hospital and demanded accommodations. When his demand was rejected he became disorderly. Maloney attempted to enter several residences before he was arrested. He was placed in the dock in the Police Court this morning, when he stated that he was born in County Clare, Ireland, and resided in "Swampoodle," northeast Washington. The prisoner said he had returned from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Maloney appears in Alexandria once a year on which occasions he is generally arrested. Justice Caton dismissed him with the understanding that he would leave the city for Washington.

The Hibernians.

Alexandria Division, L. O. H., yesterday celebrated St. Patrick's Day in a becoming manner, by attending services in St. Mary's Church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The church was crowded and the services were of an interesting nature. Rev. Father Cavanaugh delivered an appropriate address which was greatly enjoyed by the large congregation. A feature of the services was the vested choir (about 30 male members of Trinity Church of George-town). The members of the choir of St. Mary's Church also engaged in the vocal music. Father Cavanaugh during the evening blessed the banner of the organization.

Charged With Horsestealing.

Officers Roberts and Smith yesterday arrested two white boys who gave their names as Paul Clements and Eddie White, of Washington, who are suspected of stealing two horses and attempting to sell the animals in this city. The boys carried the horses to Mr. P. T. Harrington's livery stable and offered to sell both of them for $20. They later offered to dispose of them for $4. The youths were locked up and today were turned over to the Washington authorities. The animals, it is said, belong to a woman named Davis, who has a stable on N street, southeast.

Alleged Assault.

John F. Dobson, a carpenter, who lives at 417 south St. Asaph street, went to the station house yesterday and stated that he had been attacked by a crowd of negroes, beaten severely, and then robbed of $13 in cash. Dobson stated that he was in the yard in the rear of Ernest Crump's saloon, in the northern part of the city, and was drinking with the negroes when the assault and robbery occurred. He was unable to give the names of any of the men, but informed the police that he could identify several of them. Dobson bore evidences of assault.

Blood on Sidewalk.

While patrolling his beat yesterday afternoon Policeman Ferguson noticed blood stains on a sidewalk on north Columbus street. He followed the trail several squares, but was unable to determine whether the blood had been lost by some one coming from or going to the "Dutch Row" neighborhood. He subsequently learned that a fight, in which a man had been badly cut with a knife, had occurred in the forenoon. Some blood was on the pavement at the northwest corner of Wilkes and Fairfax street yesterday morning.

Missing Man.

Michael O'Neal, an employee of one of the glass factories, is missing. He lived on upper Queen street where his wife and nine children reside. He disappeared last Saturday night. When O'Neal left home he wore corduroy trousers, a cap and a dark coat.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Rachel Rodrick, colored, arrested by Conductor Bell for disorderly conduct on an electric car last Saturday, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear.

Hezekiah Gaffney, colored, arrested by Officer Arrington charged with assaulting Maggie Gaffney, had his case postponed.

William Pye, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Jack Maloney, arrested by Officer Roberts for vagrancy, was ordered to leave the city.

Seven colored men charged with gambling, were fined $5 each.

Paul Clements and Eddie White, arrested by Officers Roberts and Smith charged with stealing two horses in Washington, were turned over to an officer from that city.

William Day, colored, arrested by Officers Garvey and Ferguson charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Ernest Crump, arrested by Officer Smith charged with permitting gambling on his premises was dismissed.

Mandy Moore, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed. [This woman who had been missing for some time and who had left three children in the city.]

Labor Troubles.

It is reported that serious labor troubles are pending in one of the manufacturing plants in this city. That at the various unions employes, his concern have requested a renewal of the contracts expiring the end of this month, which request has been refused, and, in consequence, a general strike will be called on the first of April. It is to be hoped that some means will be found to avoid an issue so disastrous in its consequences to employer and employee.

The Weather.

The weather yesterday was fair and cool. During the early part of the day the wind was from the northwest, but it had worked around to the south before the close of the day. Early in the night there were evidences of falling weather, and about 4 o'clock this morning snow began to fall thick and fast. Snow continued to prevail until about 11 o'clock when it was followed by rain.

Removed the Stitches.

W. H. Hansborough, alias St. Conington, who resisted the officer who recently conducted him to jail, and who was struck on the head by the policeman, received surgical attention after having been locked up. Hansborough later removed the stitches from his head and would have bled to death had not his condition been discovered and the flow of blood stayed.

Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Carter, who died at Front Royal on last Friday, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her son, Mr. Luther Carter, at 117 south Henry street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Fisher, and the interment was in Bethel Cemetery. Mrs. Carter was a native of Fauquier county, and was sixty-six years of age.

Potomac Lodge.

Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., will celebrate its 68th anniversary on Sunday night, April 29, on which occasion the members of the lodge will, with the Daughters of Rebecca and a number of invited guests, repair to Grace Church where Rev. Edgar Carpenter will deliver an appropriate address.

Personal.

Mrs. William E. Strong, of New York, is visiting her sister, Miss Margaret V. Smith, of 510 Wolfe street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A box car loaded with lager beer was derailed, overturned and smashed on the curve a short distance north of the Portner Brewery last Saturday evening. A wrecking train was sent to the scene to raise the overturned car.

The office furniture has been placed in the new freight building at the union depot, and it is said that the freight depot of the Washington-Southern Railway will soon be transferred from Cameron and Fayette streets to that point.
